Headteacher's Message

On Wednesday our Y3 children had their Bible presentation worship. The children were brilliant! Thank you to Reverend Nelson, Jill Howe and David Thornton for coming in to present them. We are also very grateful to St Mary's Church for purchasing the Bibles for our children.

I am delighted to announce that following a rigorous appointment process yesterday, we have appointed a new Y1 teacher to cover Mrs Bell's maternity. Mrs Adele Nuttall will be joining the Cop Lane team from January. Mrs Louise Huke, who joined us on supply in September, was also successful in securing the Y1 teaching assistant post. I know you will join me in welcoming them both to the Cop Lane team.

Please do keep an eye on the 'dates for your diary' on the page opposite as dates are added all the time. The latest to be added is the carol concert at St Mary's Church. Please note the change in date of the PTFA meeting.

Finally, have a lovely half term break.

Best wishes,

Mr Ian P. Ashmore

Reflection Time

'The faith we have in God is shown by the people that we are.'

Marcus Rashford

This week in our worship, we have been looking at people who are excellent examples of service by being advocates for change. We looked at the work of Marcus Rashford and how he raised awareness of free school meals and brought about change. Marcus also spoke about his own personal faith and how this has helped him in his life. On Tuesday, the children looked at the life of Captain Tom Moore.

This week in our Picture News, we looked at the news that all Lidl chocolate bunnies are to be melted after chocolate maker, Lindt, said they looked too similar to their own bunny shaped chocolate treat. The Federal Supreme Court of Switzerland said that regardless of whether Lidl's packaging was golden or a different colour, they had too much similarity. The ruling banned the supermarket from selling the bunnies and ordered ones already made to be destroyed. The children considered the question, 'if we do something wrong, who should decide the consequences?'

In the news this week

All Lidl chocolate bunnies are to be melted after chocolate maker, Lindt, said they looked too similar to their own bunny shaped chocolate treat. The ruling banned the supermarket from selling the bunnies and ordered ones already produced to be destroyed.

Things to talk about at home ...

- > Do you think it was the right decision to make Lidl melt down all the chocolate bunnies? Can you suggest any different ways the issue could have been resolved?
- > Have you ever heard the saying, 'what goes around comes around'? Has anyone at home ever said it? What do you imagine it means and do you agree?
