Headteacher's Message

This week, we enjoyed the musical afternoon on Wednesday. It was great to see a showcase of musical performances across the school. Well done to Y5, who treated us to a ukulele performance.

On Thursday, we hosted our Y6 leavers' worship. It was great to be joined by families to wish year 6 all the best as they leave us. I would like to take this opportunity to wish all of year 6 children well at high school.

Finally, this is the last newsletter of the academic year. Don't forget we finish on Tuesday at 2pm for the summer break with school reopening on the 2nd September. Have a lovely summer break.

Best wishes,

Mr Ian P. Ashmore

PTFA News

Thank you for all your support this year. See you in the Autumn term!

Reflection Time

'He clothed, sheltered and educated over 10,000 orphans without asking for a shilling.'

George Müller

This week in our worship, we heard the story of George Müller, who set up several orphanages for children. Every time the orphanages needed something, George prayed and laid his requests before God. Then he waited, believing that God would be faithful. Sometimes, the answers to his prayers only came at the very last minute. However, God answered the prayers each time and all of the orphanage's needs were met, often through other people and their kindness. George's faith grew so much in the end, he had helped thousands of orphans, all without asking for a penny, except God.

This week in our Picture News, we looked at the news that research company, YouGov, surveyed young people aged between 6 and 17 about which jobs they'd like to have in the future. The survey, conducted alongside Great Ormond Street Hospital (GOSH), found that the role of prime minister came in as the bottom choice in the survey, the least popular career option. Almost a fifth (17%) of those asked in the poll picked footballer as their preferred job, with the same amount picking gamer or YouTuber. Gaming is a popular industry, as these choices were closely followed by video game developer at 16%. The children considered the question: "Are all jobs equal?" Our 'Picture News at Home' can be found on the last page of this newsletter.

Our class attendance figures this week are :-

|      |       |
|------|-------|
| EYFS | 96.7% |
| YR 1 | 92.3% |
| YR 2 | 93.7% |
| YR 3 | 97%   |
| YR 4 | 94.1% |
| YR 5 | 93.7% |
| YR 6 | 98.4% |

Well done to Y6 this week!!!

Governor Update

A meeting of the full governing body was held on the 16th July 2024. The impact of the meeting was:

- Governors discussed the changes to attendance from the DfE.
- Governors reviewed the school's end of year statutory data and passed their thanks on to staff for such a strong set of data.
- Governors received an update on the school improvement plan.

Governors lived out the Christian vision by making decisions to ensure that the children continue to thrive and develop within the Christian ethos of the school.

Things to talk about at home ...

- > Have you ever thought about what job you might like to do when you are older? Ask someone older at home what they wanted to do when they were younger. Are the responses similar?
- > Why do you think jobs in gaming and sports are such popular choices for young people?
