Headteacher's Message

At the end of last week, we said goodbye to Mrs Owen who has worked in our Breakfast Club since the school took it over. A big thank you for all her hard work and dedication over her time with us. We did make a successful appointment for the role a few weeks ago: Mr Sam Moss will take over from Mrs Owen. I know you will join me in welcoming him to the school family.

Some of our Y3 and Y4 children took part in a sporting event at Priory on Tuesday. They showed excellent sportsmanship and were excellent ambassadors for the school.

Our girl's football team had their first set of matches on Thursday evening. A fantastic performance and great representatives of the school.

On Thursday, our Y6 children visited Lancashire Museum to support their learning in World War 2. They had a great time.

Best wishes,

Mr Ian P. Ashmore

Reflection Time

'Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.'

Matthew 7:12

This week, in our worship, our theme was valuing others as we would like to be valued. 'The Golden Rule' is the title of a mosaic presented to the United Nations in 1985 and it now hangs in the UN Headquarters in New York. It depicts a wonderful mix of people from different nations standing together. If everyone lived out the Golden Rule in the way they live out their lives, it would be really good news for the world. Sometimes we need to make difficult choices between doing what would most please ourselves and respecting/ serving others.

This week in our Picture News, we looked at the news that Ellie Goldstein, a 23-year-old model from Ilford, has been announced as a contestant on Strictly Come Dancing. She is the first person with Down's syndrome to take part in a full series of the show, having already made history as the first model with Down's syndrome to appear on the cover of British Vogue. Ellie says she's excited for the challenge and hopes to show that people can do amazing things, even when others don't expect them to. The children considered the question: "What can we learn from people who prove others wrong?"

In the news this week

Things to talk about at home ...

- Have you ever seen Strictly Come Dancing on TV? Do you enjoy watching programmes that show competitions? Ask others at home whether they do.
- Why do you think Ellie decided to take part? Is it something you would like to take part in?
- Can you remember a time when you were told you couldn't do something? E.g., finish a puzzle or reach the top of a climbing frame. Share how you felt, and what happened.
