Headteacher's Message

We were delighted to have been re-accredited the Platinum School Sports Award for 2024-25 and 2025-26. This recognises the school's commitment to sport and PE. At Cop Lane, we promote both physical activity and competition both within the school and in the community.

Earlier in the week, we marked Remembrance. We have some super artwork on display in the main entrance from classes as part of their learning.

Finally, thank you to those who attended the PTFA meeting last night. We had a really good turnout and I am hopeful that the PTFA will continue to play a vital role in enhancing school life and funding additional opportunities for resources/ experiences for our children.

Have a good weekend.

Best wishes,

Mr Ian P. Ashmore

Reflection Time

"To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die."

Thomas Campbell

This week in worship, our theme was Remembrance. We reflected on the significance of the poppy and how it serves as a symbol to honour the service and sacrifice of servicemen and women. We explored different ways we remember, including the King laying a wreath at the Cenotaph in London. At 11:00 a.m. on 11th November, we joined together in observing a two-minute silence to honour all those who have fought and those who have lost their lives in war.

This week in our Picture News, we looked at the news that the 2025 United Nations Change Conference, known as COP30, will be held in Belém, Brazil, from 10th to 21st November. At the meeting, the country leaders and experts will discuss how to protect the planet by reducing pollution, saving forests and working together. After the meeting, countries will need to share how they will keep the climate promises they made and stay on target to meet their goals.

The children considered the question: "What would you tell the world leaders if you were at COP30?"

equates to a yearly loss of:

Five minutes late per day adds up to three learning days lost in a school year

If 15 minutes late each day you will miss two full weeks of school in one year

Poor timekeeping means less chance of success!

Lancashire Day is also known as the County Day Of Lancashire. The first Lancashire Day was held in 1996 and has been celebrated every year since on November 27th. It commemorates the day, in 1295, when representatives from Lancashire were sent to Parliament for the first time. This day recognises the region's rich contributions to English history.

Things to talk about at home ...

- Talk to someone at home about what they know about COP30.
- What do you know about climate change?
- If you could speak to the leaders at the COP30 summit, what would you say?

Please note any interesting thoughts or comments
